MISSOULA--

Fall quarter orientation for new freshmen and transfer students will be Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 22-23, at the University of Montana in Missoula.

Classes begin Monday, Sept. 29, at UM.

In conjunction with orientation activities, there will be a reception for UM President Richard C. Bowers and University deans at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 21, in the Cascade Room of the UM Lodge. The reception is open to new students and their parents.

A no-host dinner for new students and their parents is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Sept. 21 in the Treasure State Room of the Lodge. The cost will be $2.75 per person. The dinner originally was scheduled in the University Center (UC) Ballroom.

New students may check into residence halls on the Missoula campus from 9 a.m.-8 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 21.

Donna L. Booth, coordinator of academic advising at UM, who is in charge of orientation activities, said new students should file appropriate information with the University before orientation begins.

"Students should be sure all their credentials are on file at UM before Monday, Sept. 22," Booth said. "The credentials include high school transcripts, health examination forms and American College Test (ACT) scores if they have taken the tests."

Those who have not taken the ACT test may do so at 8:30 a.m. Monday, Sept. 22, in the UM Music Recital Hall, or at other times arranged by appointment with the UM Center for Student Development, 740 Eddy Ave. Students who must take the ACT may pay for the test when they pick up their registration packets in the UC Ballroom.
